My daughter, 18, is travelling with a sponsor and her advisor from school to study the affects of WW2 and the Holocaust specifically on the eastern European Jews. This guide has been very helpful with regards to new museums, festivals, and other sites of interest. It also has a great list of general information for general travel going to Poland and accomodations, tours, etc...

This is a typical Fodor's guide book. It contains all of the important info for a visit to Poland. We have mapped out a trip from Warsaw, to Lublin, Zamosc and then ending in Krakow (where my husbands family comes from). Really looking forward to exploring! Only thing I wish is that Fodor' would include a tear out country map in all of their books (this one does not have one).

found it was hard to follow... not written very well, i felt i had to keep reading it over and over, just didnt like this book.
