Ja, das ist gute. See, you're reading German already.

An excellent book with basic and advance German grammar.

Found it wasn't as helpful as I had hoped while in Bavaria.

I like the size but dislike how the book is setup. Might be your cup of tea but not my organization.

This reference book was a great travel tool. Just the right size to slip into my shoulder bag. Well organized and easy to use.

This is a small book that is easy to carry. Categories are color coded with a subtopic index on the first page of each color section making it easy to find the word or phrase desired. There is even a menu decoder at the end of the food section. For those learning German the index becomes a list of useful words for a start. As for pronunciation it is probably better to find the words spoken online; this book does not use the IPA.

Not as useful as i thought it would be.

Lonely Planet makes the best pocket language guides! Used the Latin American Spanish a few years ago and it was very reliable. Will be testing this one in the field next month.
