Exploring Iceland (Jane's Journeys)

Synopsis

This new addition to the "Jane's Journeys" series relates the experiences of the author when she visited Iceland in June 2007. She describes her impressions of Reykjavik (what's with all of the graffiti?) and recounts the organized tours that she took (more time in the museums, please). With numerous Internet links and photographs, Exploring Iceland will make the reader feel as if he is exploring Iceland, too!

Customer Reviews

This book is written more like a blog then a travel document. To many interest in travel trivia Would recommend this book for pre travel to Island

This was like reading someone's personal diary. More about herself than the place. It was not helpful in the least.
