Paris Street Style: A Coloring Book

Synopsis

Adult coloring gets a makeover with these charming, fashion-forward illustrations from the world's most romantic city. Wherever you're off to, take Paris Street Style with you. Transport yourself to the corner pâtisserie, and give life to the stylish essentials laid out from your suitcase. Beautifully detailed outfits, accessories, and hairstyles complement the equally ornate cityscapes. Embellish whimsical, full-page patterns and classic dresses with your own style. Window shop the elegant stores of Paris while you give life to playful fashion. Like a high-end journal, this sleek package has an elastic closure and a satin ribbon marker so you can dip in and dip out of your own French fashion week. With nothing more than some colored pencils, you'll be on your way to a stress-free, Parisian-chic day.

Zoe de las Cases is the author of the adult coloring books Secret Paris, Secret New York, and Secret Toyko. She lives in Paris.

I've ordered many adult coloring books (I'm kind of addicted) and this is the second Zoe de las Cases book I got through (these are hard to find and I was on a waiting list for this one). 100% worth the wait! I will be ordering all of her books. They are very well made. The paper is beautiful. The cover of this book is absolutely gorgeous in person. The picture does not do it justice. There is even an elastic band around it to hold it shut. It is quite exquisite looking and will be on my coffee table. It looks like you bought it from Paris Fashion Week. It is smaller than most books, but that is also what I like about it. I've never reviewed any book before but this one well deserves it. You won't be disappointed. I also purchased her Secret Japan book and liked it so much I bought a second one. I will most likely be buying another one of this book for myself and would also make a great gift idea! I'm loving Prime!

I anticipated this coloring book release for at least a month, and I am luckily not disappointed in the slightest. This has become my new favorite coloring book (even beating out the highly coveted Secret Garden!). I have Zoe de las Cases's Secret Paris book, but found myself being more interested in the fashion and beauty spreads in that book than the architecture scenes. Paris Street Style took all my favorite parts of Secret Paris but left out the things I didn't. The drawing style is similar to all of her other books: a sort of sketchy line style (see pictures below). It's still easy to color in but the hand drawn style feels more authentic, like you could be a chic fashion designer working on your next line. There are five main types of pictures: head-to-toe fashion looks as worn by people, "spreads" of different clothing or beauty items together (see the skirt example below), artistic-y headshots with inspirational(ish) quotes, some vintage-y patterns and a few scenes. The scenes are my least favorite just because they tend to be very zoomed in on buildings or architecture, but the variety is nice. ALSO: the paper (and book) quality is A+. Unlike my Secret Paris book, I can actually use Staedtler Fine Liners in this book without bleed through. The paper also seems to have less grooves than other de las Cases books, so my Prismacolor Premier pencils seem to lay down color with less white sticking through. The book feels so nicely bound. You can spread it flat without cracking the binding, and there's a black ribbon that you can use to mark your place. It also has a rubber band to hold it close, so the book retains the shape. It's a little oddly sized - square, but slightly smaller than a normal coloring book but not really what I'd call journal size, either. I cannot tell you how amazing this book is. If you're a fan of fashion, beauty and whimsy, you have to grab this one.

The drawings are extremely cute! I also got the "Secret Paris" coloring book and I absolutely love it.

I've tried a few adult coloring books, but this is my favorite. It has different types of images, so I can color whatever mood I'm in. Some are full page patterns, some are clothing outfits on people, some are flat clothing laid out (like a page of all shoes), and some are scenery (like a street cafe). The paper is thick and only wrinkles a little bit when I use my watercolor pencils on it.

Another absolute winner by the artist Zoe de las Cases! I have two of her other coloring books, but this one is great in the way that you can keep them in a book form to show them off. The artist gives you a wide variety of scenery, clothing, and everyday things that we use to bring out your own imagination. Beware using markers though, as they tend to bleed through to the following page which is another picture. I would reserve it for colored pencils. It would make a great gift along with a set of Prisma colored pencils. I truly hope she comes out with more like this in the near future.

This is a lovely adult coloring book which has everything you will see in Paris, France. The buildings, clothing and food; also, really like the flexible hard cover, elastic closer and place ribbon. Every page offers you to color it which is a great way to really improve my skills using art markers.

I absolutely love this coloring book! It's a very beautiful design, like a journal. There is a combination of large and small areas to color; I found that using a combination of colored pencils and fine liner pens (like Stabilo) work beautifully. The pages are of high quality. I would love more coloring books to be made in this style - I don't feel like I'm toting around a coloring book!

I thought this coloring book was unique, I admit I was looking for a coloring book that was fashion based. I was delighted when I came across this gem, lots of pages with lots of details! Be prepared to use your colored pencils for a while because of the various content.
