My daughter and I are huge Dr. Who fans. We love the show so much. She's ten and not much of a reader, so if she shows any interest in a subject I like to get her books about it because if she likes it, she'll read it. Also I enjoy reading anything about Dr. Who. I had purchased the fiftieth anniversary

Annual in the past and we both loved it so I decided to get this one. I'm glad I did. While, I do think the book is written with a younger audience in mind, that doesn't mean I can't enjoy it. I don't know if maybe some people would think this is too childish, but I certainly didn't. Maybe I'm just a big kid!!! It has plenty of information and stories as well as fun little games like "spot the difference or mazes. This isn't a book that you will read once and never pick up again. It has a lot of information and a lot of fun activities packed into it's thin frame. I'm happy I purchased it.

I buy these every year, they are lean and fun, more kid oriented. But the version I received was much much smaller than all the other annuals -- so it looks funny on my shelf -- is this a one off size? did I buy the wrong version? why wasn't the smaller size mentioned?

This was a gift for my 11yr old grand daughter who loves Dr Who. She seemed very happy with the book :)

Good product as described

This was a gift for a 13 year old boy. He was fascinated and could not put it down.

Not very full, quite a lean edition

Great

Always
