Murder Most Vile Volume 17: 18 Shocking True Crime Murder Cases (True Crime Murder Books)

Synopsis

Bizarre! Shocking! Horrific! Depraved! 18 Shocking True Crime Murder Cases From Around The World, including; Midnight Shift: The advertisement sounded too good to be true. And it was. Those who responded found themselves lured into the grasp of a serial killer. A Doctorate in Death: Professor Amy Bishop was known around campus for her notoriously short fuse. Still, no one would have suspected that she'd pull a gun during a faculty meeting. Secrets and Lies: A duplicitous redhead, a hapless, love-struck rancher and a handsome cowboy come together in this sordid tale of sex, deceit and murder. The Girl in the Yellow Pajamas: How do you catch a killer when you can't even put a name to the victim? A classic murder mystery from Australia. Life After Death: The horrific tale of a woman who was prepared to go to any lengths to have a baby - including bloody murder. Game, Set, and Murder: He was a Wimbledon finalist and the greatest Irish tennis player of his generation. So how did he end up embroiled in a bloody mutilation murder? Eat Me: The advertisement called for a man who was prepared to be killed and then eaten. Amazingly, there were four applicants. A Man Walks into a Bank: The barely believable tale of a bank heist gone horribly wrong and the robber who, literally, lost his head. Plus 10 more riveting true crime cases. Customer Reviews

I enjoyed the book. Keller does a great job researching his stories. However, the misspellings and other editing errors really take away from the book. I have read numerous books of Keller's and they all have editing errors. Overall, it is an interesting read and I do recommend the book.

Another great book by Keller. I really enjoy his books and always look forward to more from him!

It was most interesting to read.

Another excellent volume in this series. Keller is currently the best of the true crime writers who specialize in smaller vignettes. He introduces all of the facts necessary to fully understand the crimes and the criminals and keeps the flow of the individual stories at high tide. These are compelling tales and each volume seems to get better.

Not serial killers this time, but get ready for some truly shocking crimes. It makes you shake your head in amazement at man's inhumanity to man. A few of these cases may be familiar to you, but some of the older cases are fascinating, such as the preacher who couldn't resist proposing to young women so that at all times he had two or three fiancées. Needless to say, this caused him a lot of problems.²⁵

A definite must read. Mr. Keller never disappoints.

This true crime book contains many cases I had never read about. It's well written and contains cases from around the world.
