Patrology, Vol. 4: The Golden Age Of Latin Patristic Literature
Synopsis
The monumental classic collection that studies the ancient Christian writers and their teachings about the early Church.

Book Information
Paperback: 667 pages
Publisher: Christian Classics (October 1, 1983)
Language: English
ISBN-10: 0870611275
Product Dimensions: 5.8 x 1.9 x 8.3 inches
Shipping Weight: 4.6 pounds (View shipping rates and policies)
Average Customer Review: 5.0 out of 5 stars 1 customer review

Customer Reviews
For the student of early Church History as well as of the development of Christian doctrine, Quasten’s work is an outstanding contribution. Indeed one may confidently predict that it will be the standard work in the field for many years to come.

Angelo Di Berardino is past president and current professor of patrology at the Augustinian Patristic Institute (Augustinianum) in Rome. He is the editor or author of authoritative works on the early church, including Encyclopedia of the Early Church (recently updated and expanded in Italian as Nuovo dizionario patristico e di antichita cristiane) and Patrology: The Eastern Fathers from the Council of Chalcedon to John of Damascus. He also serves as the Italian-language editor for the Ancient Christian Commentary on Scripture. Quasten, Professor of Ancient Church History and Christian Archaeology. Quasten, Professor of Ancient Church History and Christian Archaeology.

Quasten’s Patrology is a four-volume scholarly survey of writings by the church fathers in the first several centuries of the Christian era. Some online reviews give the impression that the Patrology is an anthology of those writings. In fact, it is a survey that includes many excerpts (in English), often a page in length, to give a fair idea of what the author under discussion is like. The bibliographies are also extensive. Like the Literary History of England, it’s more of a reference book than something you would sit and read straight through. On the plus side, the Patrology is thorough and well written and has an excellent reputation. On the minus side, it is expensive (for a softcover) and needs to be supplemented for the study of heresies that have come to light since 1970. The texts discovered at Nag Hammadi, for example, are very important for the study of Irenaeus. Something of such enduring value as Quasten’s Patrology deserves to be published in hardcover. It should be on the short list of must-haves for the library of any seminary or university that teaches church history, patristics, theology, or philosophy. Quasten’s Patrology is a four-volume set. If you are considering buying any of them, you may find the following ISBN numbers handy: Patrology v1, Beginnings from Apostles’ Creed, ISBN 0870610848; Patrology v2, Ante-Nicene after Irenaeus, ISBN 0870610856; Patrology v3, Golden Age Greek, ISBN 0870610864; Patrology v4, Golden Age Latin (from Nicea to Calcedon), ISBN 0870611275; set of four volumes, ISBN 0870611410. When ordering online, confirm the volume by ISBN number. Online vendors get the volumes confused with each other. Some are identified by the series title alone; others by the volume title; the cover art displayed may be for the wrong volume; and so on.

Download to continue reading...

Values) Sounding Salsa: Performing Latin Music in New York City (Studies In Latin America & Car)