Customer Reviews

I purchased the Royal Engraving Foil Brush set with this after reading some of the reviews. My experience is with using those, not the added wooden one. Overall, this is very detailed. And a unique concept. This is nothing like the scratch offs I had as a kid, with the bright rainbow colors underneath. This has what appears to be metallic colors, at least on top of first page. Again, it's very detailed. I am legally blind (20/300 in best eye), and can do this using a magnifying glass.

Some minor scratches on some of the designs from shipping but I guess that is to be expected. Most I was able to work into the design and they turned out beautiful!

Smaller than I expected but cute. Not really sure why I thought I could do this at work during my down times. It is very messy but still a cute idea!

Very easy and a great way to occupy my mind. My 20 yo daughter loves it also.

Gave as a gift and he loved it

I guess I expected something different. You can't get the lines as small, straight, or precise enough with the included tool. I was dissatisfied within 10 minutes.

I was really excited for this and it's just not that great. The images don't look very good when you're done.

Great for passing time or relaxing. Might be a little to challenging for kids.
