Customer Reviews

This is the first of the Amish Wedding Series. I like Samantha Bayarr's writing style. Her characters have depth and great personalities. Thus the story is fun to read while learning about the Amish lifestyle. My only complaint is that the stories are too short. They just end too soon.

This story will grab your attention quickly and leaves you wanting to know how it ends. Each character is wrestling with turning over every aspect of their life to God. This story is so relevant to everyone's daily struggles. I am anxiously waiting for the next book.

Ellie left the community because of unbridled passion between her and Jonas. She left to live with a relative. In the time she was gone, her baby was born. She never told anyone back home about her daughter Katie. When Katie was about 18 months old, Ellie received an invitation to a wedding for her best friend back home, Hannah and Jonas. Ellie decides to go back home. Through the Amish "grape vine", Jonas finds out about Katie. Is Katie really his? Will Jonas and Hannah get married now that Ellie is back? Or will Jonas and Ellie get a second chance at true love? Read Ellie's Homecoming by Samantha Bayarr. It is a must read for those who enjoy Amish romance stories.

I enjoyed this book. Ellie and Jonas seemed realistic as did the other characters. I enjoy stories about the "Amish" because I know they are going to be totally clean reads.

God has plans for us even we mess them up. If we allow Him to have control, he will make a way when there seems to be no way.

Very enjoyable, well written short story, not a book length. - Of course I had already figured out what was going to happen in the 2nd book. This book also shows that the Amish have the same feelings as everyone else -even though they had a great deal harder to stay in friendship and loving one another.

I read the whole book in basically one sitting. It isn't as long as a regular paperback book would be. I loved the story.

Just the kind of book I enjoy: a few twists and turns, good friendships, clean romance and a happy ending.
