No planning required! Need a day away to relax, refresh, renew? Just get in your car and go! Day Trips from Raleigh-Durham is your guide to hundreds of exciting things to do, see, and discover right in your own backyard. Explore places you never even knew existed; many free of charge and most within a two-hour drive of the Raleigh-Durham area. Do something prehistoric: Examine fossilized bones, teeth, and shells on display at the Aurora Fossil Museum or dig for your own fossils in a special area outside. Do something flowery: Celebrate one of the state's most prolific plants at Wilmington's North Carolina Azalea Festival, featuring big-name music stars, a full-fledged circus, and garden tours. Do something patriotic: Wander through the artifacts and photographic exhibits at the 82nd Airborne Division War Memorial Museum to learn about this famed unit's history. Do something kid-approved: Have fun with go-karts, arcade games, water slides, and a giant wave pool at Jungle Rapids Family Fun Park. With full trip-planning information, you can make the most of your time off and rediscover the simple pleasures of a day trip.

Excellent information in it - more pictures would have been nice.

Look forward to using this on my trip in September.

This book contains great ideas for daytrips from the Raleigh/Durham area. It categorizes the trips by region so that if you have already planned a trip you can find locations nearby. My wife and I have had lots of fun trips based on the things in the book.

excellent

We're happy with the book. Picked up a used one, and it's in decent condition, as described. Has good information on day trips in our area, which is perfect for our family, still trying to get familiar with our local surroundings, and looking for new interesting places to explore.
