La Favorita: The Favorite, A Grand Opera, In Four Acts (Classic Reprint)

Synopsis

Excerpt from La Favorita: The Favorite, a Grand Opera, in Four Acts Among the many improvements introduced into this edition, may be noticed the plan of printing the original text and the translation on the same page, so that the two, instead of being on opposite pages, appear side by side, and absolutely line by line, - a change which it is hoped, will much facilitate the reading of them simultaneously. A more decided improvement, is the introduction of the Melodies of the leading pieces a feature that enables the opera frequenter to follow the music as well as the words, and thus will add materially, it is confidently hoped, to the gratification derivable from the performance and will also agreeably awaken remembrance at any future time, by bringing back reminiscences of scene and action, that, but for such aid, would be forgotten. The magic in uence of sound, in summoning up the past, is an association that must have been felt by every one.
