Customer Reviews

Favorite Recipes Press, an imprint of FRP Books, Inc., has a forty year history connecting Junior Leagues with home cooks by partnering with them to produce cookbooks that showcase their regional cuisines and traditions, tell the stories of their charitable causes and raise money so that their good work can be carried on, even expanded. The results is well over 3 million Junior League cookbooks in circulation and a reputation for tried and true recipes collected by home cooks across the country. Favorite Recipes Press was founded in 1961 by Millard Fuller and Morris Dees, to fund their college educations. Both, later, sold their interests in the company and founded nationally known not-for-profit organizations. Fuller founded Habitat for Humanity International and Dees founded the Southern Poverty Law Center. One of the nation's best-known and most respected producers of cookbooks, Favorite Recipes Press has produced over 1000 titles working with nonprofit organizations, chefs, resorts, spas, retailers, restaurants and more. Favorite Recipes Press clients' cookbooks have won 100's of awards including, Julia Child Awards, Tabasco Community Cookbook Awards, James Beard Foundation Awards, Writer's Digest Awards, and others.

Love the recipes! As the world gets smaller, it is fun to see how recipes in different areas differ, and how so many of them are the same!

LOVE this cookbook. The recipes are a great mix of traditional, classic and modern. Enjoy reading the history and comments. This is a must for cookbook collectors.

The most awesome receipts or recipes, one mouth watering recipe after another.

Lovely read and some great recipes too.

My husband cried when I gave away the copy I had bought for a gift, he wanted to keep it for himself. So I got him one. Another satisfied customer.

Great Recipes!! I purchased another copy to send to my daughter. She loves it too!! A lot of fun facts for enjoyable reading and a bit of history. I loved it!!

The recipes sounded so good I couldn't wait to try them out good cookbook for basic southern cooking

This was a gift for my brother, who saw my copy and loved the recipes for wild game. It is filled with recipes from Charlestown South Carolina's ladies and is for very traditional Southern cooking.
