These are the most deliciously creative little mini-classic books you'll ever find. My daughter and I read through ours almost every day. Wuthering Heights is my all-time favorite book, and it is so fun being able to share something so special with my 3 year old. This specific book has a different "weather" on each page. She loves looking at the changes between the sunny day, foggy day and windy day, etc.. Bright colors and intriguing illustrations!! I'm obsessed. :)

Our young toddler enjoys the different weather discussed in this particular primer. The pictures are colorful and easy to see. There is little language involved (other than identifying types of weather featured in the novel). Our little one still enjoys this one.

I saw this was rated well and a "primer" but I'm just not in love with it. My son doesn't like it at all.

I love this book series. They are all wonderful.

We have about 10 baby lit books, and this one is my favorite. The illustrations are so detailed, we're still noticing new things.

So in love with this series. Bought as a gift and will also be purchasing entire set as a gift again & again.

Never met a baby lit book I didn't like. These are all awesome and fun little board books!

We love these BabyLit books! They're creative, cute, smart, fun and entertaining for my daughter who doesn't even like to read books!
