Nomadic Matt's Guide To Bangkok (2016 Edition)

Synopsis

Nomadic Matt is the largest independent travel website in the world. This guide to Bangkok is your ticket to getting off the beaten path and having an authentic, non-touristy visit. Written by New York Times best selling author and former resident Matthew Kepnes (who spent years living the city), this book features insider tips and cuts out on all the junk, getting right to the point so you can spend less time planning and more time exploring. What's included in the guide? Suggested itineraries for various lengths of time. Suggested (and realistic) budgets. Ways to save money in Bangkok. Transportation maps. What to see and do (and what to skip). Insider tips on the best local places eat, drink, and play. Budget accommodation recommendations so you can stay cheap! Cultural insights on the city's history, politics, and arts, including a list of suggested books and movies. Practical tips on getting around, business hours, visas, weather, emergency contacts, and much, much more. This guide contains all the essential information you need to explore the wild city that is Bangkok! If you're the type of traveler who likes to get away from the crowds, save money, and meet locals, this comprehensive guide is for you!

Customer Reviews

Pretty straight to the point but would have liked to see a but more "insider" info and tips as most of this stuff can be found easily via google
