I don't expect much for $2.99, but Mrs Miniver was truly shocking. My previous order, the Prisoner of Zenda, lacked any quotation marks. I was able to make my way through it after some mental gymnastics, but still...I'd ask for my money back on Mrs M, but don't know how to go about doing that.

the reason for the poor rating is that the book sells is full of typos, missing words, etc. they should refund the price to anyone that buys it

The book is much different than the film..much more of an internal dialogue with beautifully descriptive narrative. It is essentially a diary describing the beautiful world of pre-war England before the Nazis attacked.

Good service an book is a classic.

The author speaks so beautifully about the simple enjoyment of Mrs. Miniver thoughts. Enjoyed watching this family through her eyes.

Great story and great writing

Happy with book purchase.

Still a good read that offers insight into the home front.
