Love this book!! I have since purchased the violin/guitar and guitar solo versions. I bought this to play easy duets with my 9 year old daughter that plays the cello and I play the guitar. The arrangements are easy to play, sound really nice and have built both her confidence as well as mine. We REALLY enjoy playing this well known classical songs together. Really great stuff. I highly recommend.

As the title indicates, they are short and easy pieces and may be too easy for intermediate beginner cellist and up. I bought this piece to play guitar and cello separately for recording purpose. I can play more complex cello pieces, but I'm not a good guitarist, so this will be perfect for me to have some fun with both instruments in the future.

This book includes 15 pieces for guitar and cello. This is written in standard notation, and includes TABs for the guitar. The intro includes some basics on reading music and terminology. I found the music to be straightforward and easy. Some of the notes include fingering for the cello. Overall, it's a good book.

Easy to read, great for beginner level. Also compatible with the "Easy Classical Guitar and Viola Duets" book. A great book for duets(or trios if you get the other compatible books) for starting out.

The pieces are arranged well and are fun to play. The only downside on the Kindle version is that when I try to magnify on the iPad, I have to minimize again before I can go to the next page of the song.

These "easy" arrangements are not only easy but too short and with other changes that sap the interest out of them. We might play one or two of them but, mostly disappointments in this book.

VERY GOOD SELECTION OF SONGS. EASY TO FOLLOW AND PLAY. THE BOOK INCLUDES ALOT OF FINGERINGS WHICH IS A PLUS. THE BOOK PROVIDES A PLAYING GUIDE ALSO.
