Customer Reviews

What I like most about this cookbook is the fact that most of the ingredients are in your pantry already. There are definitely some I will be trying like the Corn Chowder. The recipes are not loaded with a lot of unnecessary ingredients. For me quick and easy. Thanks for the free cookbook.

Soulful Southern Cooking: Favorite Southern Comfort Food Recipes by Louise Davidson Starts with an intro then onto the recipes: appetizers where you are given a summary of the dish, servings, ingredient list, and how to put the dish together and cook. There are no pictures and no nutritional information. In some you should have no problem substituting for a healthier option. Other chapters include Main entrees, sides and desserts along with list of author's other works. Cooking conversion charts and temperature guide are also included.

Omg the desserts sound so good!! These recipes bring back some very fond memories. Perfect dishes for a family dinner on a Sunday!

Lots of downhome cooking recipes.

Enjoyed recipes featured

Kind of disappointing talked about using chicken for chicken fried steak

I have lived in the South all my life and found all the receipts used by my Mother. My Mother was taught how to cook by her black Nanny.

Well written easy to understand
