Very easy to use as I relearn this language

I currently have the Spanish with Michel Thomas series as well as Rosetta Stone levels 1-5 and thought that this Berlitz would be a good accompaniment to that to do in the car. This has got to be the worst language method that was ever devised! They say things once (quickly) and then expect you to be able to do the same---as well as make up sentences from only having heard anything the one time! My advice? Buy Michel Thomas to do in the car and Rosetta Stone---both are clear (well, Rosetta Stone is clear if you have another computer running to translate when the pictures are not really clear) and well thought out and expect to be able to converse in Spain next year on a planned trip.

Good for an introduction to the language.

as I am a new Spanish learner this book had helped me a lot its easy simple

Good

It is not

It's a great book to teach Spanish in a fast and practical way. It covers all the basic needs of a language learner who needs to communicate in Spanish in daily situations. The recordings are very thoughtful and are all spoken by native Spanish speakers, and require an attentive listener who has incorporated the language necessary to continue making progress along the course. Great book if used by experienced teachers!
