Professional photographer, Rick Schafer studied under the late Photographer Laureate of Oregon, Ray Atkeson for twelve years. He has built on that experience to develop a photographic style all his own.

The photos were okay but I had expected photos of our outdoor features such as Mt Hood, the ocean beaches, The Sisters area, the high desert, eastern and southern Oregon I bought them as gifts for my Australian and New Zealand hosts so they could see all the wonders of Oregon and was somewhat disappointed that there were too many photos of city stuff.

Made a great house warming gift for my sister's new house. She says her guests love it!

One of the better pictorials of my home state. Breathtaking and a wonder to behold. Those not familiar with Oregon will be amazed by its diversity and beauty.

Very pretty photos.

A gift to hosts in Denmark. They seem to enjoy the pictures and descriptions of Oregon and it's piqued their interest in the state.
