Customer Reviews

Leisure Arts is pleased to offer this second collection of cross stitch Christmas stocking designs by the artists at Kooler Design Studio. Designers in this book include Linda Gillum, Barbara Baatz Hillman, Sandy Orton and Nancy Rossi. Donna Kooler, the founder, president and creative director of Kooler Design Studio.

I adore Christmas stockings, I make them as wedding and new baby gifts. They are greatly appreciated and remind the recipient of someone who loves them dearly. This is an awesome collection of stockings by Donna Kooler, the book is well written and the charts are very easy to use, even with my old eyes! My only complaint is that all the stockings face right, they are not the traditional left facing stocking. That is easily overcome by taking the chart to a printer and having him/her make a reverse copy for you. Not such a big deal as I always make a working copy so as not to ruin my original chart or book, it's just an inconvenience going to the printer as I usually make my copies at home.

Came on time. I really like this book. Look forward to stitching these designs.

I love this book. I am making a stocking for my Mom for her great-grandchild and am half-way through. Fun and the charts are easy to read! The price of the book was great and the cost of supplies minimal! I'm having a great time and am learning to love cross-stitching.

Getting back into counted cross-stitch... I want to make a stocking for my first grandchild.

Parents-to-be liked many of the designs and selected a gender-neutral one. Dad-to-be selected one for himself also. All the designs are lovely.

These patterns are very easy to work with. I've made three of these now and my family loves them. Each one takes me 3 to 4 months to do working on them when I get time or watching tv at night. They are great heirlooms that last forever. My family appreciates the hard work and time that goes into making these.

Very nice book. Lots of ideas for stockings. Haven't made any, working on ornaments I ordered here too.

There are some really cute (14) stocking designs in this book. There is an angel, several santas, a cute candy nutcracker, a nostalgic design, and more. The designs were stitched on 14 count Aida but they also give the sizes if you wish to stitch on 16 or 18 count. Looking forward to getting started.

I don't like this book as much as her first edition. However, there were a couple that I feel I will use. Contrary to other reviewers, I like the designs with animals. My biggest complaint is the direction. All the other stockings I have made have the toe going left and these go to the right. I have to reverse them and I find that very confusing.
