This company has excellent customer service. Honestly, I was disappointed with the first unit I received because it was defective and popped after I had it for 48 hours. The replacement is working great. The company was VERY QUICK to respond to my previous 3 Star review and that was impressive. I am giving this product a 5 Star review now for several reasons: 1. My 14 year old LOVES it, 2. The company was very responsive to my concerns and FIXED the issue and 3. There is a warranty on the product so I was comfortable giving the product a second chance. In a marketplace, where customer service is RARE, this company stands apart. They do care about their customers and the satisfaction of their product.

Where has this been my whole boating life??? My family loves to take the boat to the sandbars near our home, and once we're there, we've always been at the mercy of sandy towels and rickety lounge chairs. Now with this inflatable lounge, we can finally relax in comfort! These things are so easy to inflate and they deflate down to an unimaginably small size. This is so simple to store in our bay. Once we get to the sandbar, it's just minutes until someone has claimed it for the duration of the trip. My only problem is that I need one for each member of my family! This is awesome purchase for a boater - just a must-have.

I have heard great things about this ChillaX Inflatable Lounge Airbed with Carry Bag and was so excited to try this out! Whoever thought this up is a genius! At first it was kind of hard to get the hang of inflating it but after trying it repeatedly it is now easier to inflate. This lounge airbed is very comfortable to lay in and it rolls up very easily back into the included carry bag. ChillaX also includes a stake to hold down the lounge so that it doesn't blow away or slide if you are on an incline. My kids love it so much they even inflate it inside the house to lay in when watching TV.

This chair is awesome! I had a hard time airing it up the first time, but after I watched the video on the company's website I was able to quickly fix what I was doing wrong and it aired up quickly and held great! Now I can get it aired up in no time (about 1 minute or less) and it has held air great. Its perfect for summer nights in the front yard while my boys run around a play and our movie nights on our deck. We have taken it to family BBQs and to the baseball field. It holds up great and the built in headrest/ tie down are perfect! We love the ease and portability of this lounge chair! The fabric is thick and very easy to wipe off and keep clean.

After watching the video a few times and practicing outside with some airflow the ChillaX Air Lounger be pretty routine to set up. I definitely struggled the first time trying to fill up the air lounge in my family room when it first arrived, but once I was on the beach it became a lot easier to master. The air lounge was a huge hit all summer at the beach. I brought it with Greece to serve as an extra beach lounge four our family. I was torn about leaving it back there for next summer as I wanted to bring it home to continue to use it throughout the year. Definitely enough of a reason to purchase a second. The air lounge was more comfortable than any of the traditional beach/pool lounges and any time it needed a little more pressure I simply gave the end another roll. I was really happy I decided to buy this item.

I have 3 of these! One for me and my girls, so no one would fight over the airbed. This is perfect for the beach because you are ABOVE the sand. If your feet are dirty, you can just hang your legs over and dangle the sandy feet OUTSIDE the bed. If sand does get in the bed, you can easily use your hand to just swipe away the sand. No more shaking blankets and getting sand in your eyes or having sand fly over to your neighbor's area. If you have to leave for the restroom or snacks, colors are bright so you can quickly find your way back to home to your beach spot.

This was so fun trying to get set-up with my son. It took a bit to figure out as there are two opening at the end to fill. At first I thought I had to fill both which was hard as you can only really open one at a time. After I realized they were both connected at the end, I just tried filling up one side. There was no wind the day we received it so we had to run a bit to fill it up but after we did, it rolled well. It was very comfortable to sit in and my son has confiscated it from me so I guess I will have to get another one.

This lounge is so much fun! It is easy to fill with air, although I found that using a fan makes it even easier. I really like the "pillow" at the head of the unit, and the pockets on the side are perfect for keeping my cell phone handy. We don't have the space for a hammock, so this is a great substitute. It's a big plus that it deflates easily and you just roll it back up and store it in its bag. The anchor loops keep a stiff breeze from blowing the lounge away when we have to get up for a few minutes.
