Customer Reviews

Read the product description, people. This isn't a playable quidditch set, and for anyone who thought you could buy a full sports quality quidditch set at $18... maybe you should have read the product description a little more closely. The box measures 9" wide, 4.5" tall, & 4.5" deep when closed, and is perfect for displaying on a shelf. The box is sturdy cardboard with a nice matte finish and metal accents for the hinges, with a plastic latch that can be "locked" with a set of keys. It has a nice hand painted look on the lid interior. The quidditch balls sit in a cardstock/plastic display box with indentations for each ball, and the balls themselves are a good, heavy weight. The bludgers are about the size of a golf ball and have a similar feel. The quaffle is made of the same material, but larger, about baseball size. The snitch is attached to the box.

This is actually really cute. It's not the best materials, but still better than I expected it to be. I also thought it was gonna be really tiny because of the price, but it's a pretty good collectible size (not life size). It makes a great addition to my collection. The keys and poster are under the balls. It's a little hard to remove the inner box to get to them because it is a tight fit. And for those leaving bad reviews because the snitch doesn't have wings...have you seen the movie? The wings don't expand until it is removed from the box. Same in the last movies when Harry is given the snitch to keep. No wings there either. For $18, it's really cute. If you are looking for a life size, perfectly made set, you are gonna spend a lot more money. This will fit nicely on a shelf or dresser, look nice, and not take up too much space.

I had to wait MONTHS for this item to be available and let me tell you....it was 100% worth it!! The quality is so much more than I expected and it's larger than I imagined also. The box itself is sturdy and the quaffle and bludgers are excellent quality. Heavy material and extremely detailed. I LOVE this collectible Quidditch set!! You'll see the size comparison in the photos...it's as wide as and taller than a box of tissues. It's awesome!!

This was a well received gift for my 7yr old, from his big brother. Looks very nice, if a bit on the flimsy side. My boys were a little disappointed that the snitch cannot be removed. The bludgers and quaffle, however, have a good weight to them (fingers crossed that all of their stuffed animals that are at "Pawwarts School" don't send one of them through the window)!

Found these on another website but they were a better deal on here... so I bought one for a gift for someone else and figured I better buy myself one while I was at it! The listing has been changed since my purchase, though. I did not get a book with mine. If it hadn't been such a great deal on here versus the other website, I would be upset over the changes... but I got what I could when it was available! This is by no means a high quality item, but I was completely aware of that before purchasing it. These collector's items are still a good deal and I'm overall happy that I got them.

I love this quidditch set! My husband bought me these to display on my desk at work. The quality is outstanding. The trunk is made of thick cardboard and has beautiful designs painted on it. It's about 9 inches long by 5 inches high. The balls sit on top a thick cardstock display. You can remove both bludgers and the quaffle. They are heavy and are about the size of a small plum. The snitch is attached to the lid of the trunk and is unable to be removed unfortunately. There is even a lock and a key for it. It's a upscale collectable for a small price and a great gift for any Harry Potter fan.

I really love the trunk...so many complained that it was too small, I was hoping for something smaller. Having bought Running Press products in the past, most were smaller than expected so I was surprised at the size of this. Although it was bigger than I was thinking it would be it still works for displaying my Harry Potter and Draco Quidditch player Funkos.

Great collectible for that avid fan. Both me and my now grown children ARE avid fans, and after receiving, I almost kept it for me instead of gifting it to my daughter, as intended. The case, itself, is a heavy cardboard that appears laminated. It should hold up just fine as long as you aren't sitting on it or letting it out in weather, etc. The latch is a bit tricky and made of plastic, but it works and looks nice. The bludgers are quite heavy and might I say...cute. This is a nice inexpensive addition to anyone's HP collection. I would buy this item again and will watch for further offerings from Running Press.
