The Missing: Book Eight, The Eddie McCloskey Paranormal Mystery Series (The Unearthed 8)

Synopsis

Years ago, a man and a woman walked out of a Philadelphia bar around closing time. They were never seen or heard from again. Their bodies have never been found. And every lead given to the police has led nowhere. Out of leads and facing the coldest of trails, an ex-FBI agent decides to make a last ditch effort at finding the missing man and woman. Special Agent Frank Cornish turns to paranormal investigator, Eddie McCloskey. Eddie has seen his share of tough cases. Many of them were considered unsolvable. But this one seems to be the most perplexing and impossible of them all because the missing have left absolutely no trace. They just disappeared. Facing impossible odds, Eddie hatches a scheme that's so crazy, it might just work. Soon he and his ghost-hunting partners, Stan and Moira, will find out the hard way there are people who want the missing to stay gone. If Eddie and his team want to get at the truth, they will have to go through shady family members, friends with ulterior motives, and the South Philly mob. But Eddie's just the guy for this job. The Missing is the eighth story in the Eddie McCloskey Series. These are fast, fun, often terrifying paranormal thrillers with compelling mysteries. Eddie McCloskey is as three-dimensional a character as you're likely to get in a thriller series, as he transforms over time from one adventure to the next.
