Of all the Focus on the Family audio dramas I've listened to, this one is the best. As in all of them, the quality of the dramatization itself is exceptional: the voice actors and the sound effects are excellent. But unlike the other books that Focus on the Family has dramatized, this one seemed to survive the dramatization process well. It was easy to follow, no fill-in narrator was needed, and I didn't feel that any of the book had been lost. I highly recommend this, especially for families with children.

This was amazing. I used it for a road trip with my 7 & 9 yr old little boys. I was not sure if it would hold their interest, but they LOVED it.....even so much that they forgot about poking and annoying one another in the back seat!! Mom win!

Love Love Love. You will not be disappointed. The action and the sound and the expressions through words on this audio is great! We are really enjoying his Audiobook.

This is an excellent production of Montgomery's classic work! The cast is perfect, the quality of the sound, background, etc. is wonderful. No annoying background noises as in some audio books. I felt myself transformed to Prince Edward Island once again. I hope Focus on the Family produces more audio books of the classics. They excel at radio theater. Perhaps Montgomery's entire Green Gables series?

My favorite character is Marilla. I never thought anyone could even compete with Colleen Dewhurst from the movie but I think this Marilla does a fine job. It is a little hard to hear this after watching the movie a million times, but it's still very enjoyable and my daughter loves it.

Really great recording!

I purchased this for my 9 year old daughter. I LOVE the anne of green gables movies, and have watched them with my daughter as well...and she enjoyed it too! My kids always go to bed listening to their CD players, and oftentimes it is to audio books. I thought this would be a good addition to her collection :) EXCELLENT story!

loved it
