Customer Reviews

"...reflects the experience, love and knowledge of Bill Kelly and Anne Vipond for this cruiser's paradise." -- 48 North Magazine
"A terrific book. Packed with solid information and local knowledge. A must-have addition to every boat's library." -- Waggoner Cruising Guide
"The ultimate cruising guide to the south coast of British Columbia." -- Pacific Yachting Magazine

William Kelly and Anne Vipond are a husband-and-wife team who began cruising British Columbia's coastal waters in the early 1980s. Their boating travels have extended beyond the Inside Passage to Prince William Sound and Kodiak Island. They moor their Spencer 35 on the Fraser River, south of Vancouver, and embark each summer on upcoast cruises with their two young boys. Kelly and Vipond have written extensively for Pacific Yachting magazine. Bill's cruising articles first appeared on its pages in the early 1980s, and Anne's Gunkholes column premiered in 1992, running for 13 years. Anne has also written for various yachting magazines around the world and for newspapers across Canada. They also publish a series of guidebooks for cruise ship travellers, most notably the bestselling Alaska By Cruise Ship, and they have written several travel books for Thomas Cook Publishing of the United Kingdom.

This cruising guide has been one of many aboard our trawler during the past 2 summer's cruises through British Columbia. The superb choices made by the authors for inclusion as "the best" have made it one of our favorite and most frequently referenced guides. The photos are both numerous and compelling and the text very supportive. We've yet to be disappointed on any anchorage recommended in this book! I just wish this couple would publish additional cruising guides.

A great book about sailing in this area. There is more practical sailing information than in most of the other guides for this area.

This is a very welcome addition to our onboard cruising library. The book covers many anchorages not discussed in other guides. Very well written and nice photo accompaniment.

Best Anchorages of the Inside Passage: British Columbia's South Coast from the Gulf Islands to Cape Caution (Purchased on 12/25/2008) Very good - very informative and well written!

Probably one of the best guides for anchorages on the lower BC coast.

With many excellent cruising guides and references available for the British Columbia area (and I own most of them) I wondered about the need for another guide for the very full bookshelf on our boat. DO NOT FEAR!! After you flip through this book for just a few minutes you will find that it will instantly become your favorite. The writing is excellent and the detail about all the locations is superb. The photography is simply amazing with a nice combination of aerial views, scenic views and local sights that make you want to try all the locations. The cover is very glossy and heavy and the overall size of the book, at 7 1/2" x 10", makes it perfect for a reference book on a crowded helm. Very worth the price. I wish the same authors would do the same treatment of the San Juans, inner Puget Sound and the northern Inside Passage up to Glacier Bay.

Very informative book in full color. I lots of anchorages I did not know about.
