Customer Reviews

worn out two "cassette tapes" of this already! Love the sequence of how the tempo raises to get you moving and also the little tips that Rita Moreno gives out. All round a great walking tape. Now that I have a treadmill that also has incline, it works out perfect on those crappy winter days!

I love the music on this cd and have copied it over to my MP3 player now. I don't get to walk as often as I like, but the music is soothing and Rita Marano's voice is not irritating like a lot of the work out guru's. I know you have to like this kind of music to begin with, but I found that the beat was easy to walk to and it keeps you on track with the pace.

Item as described

Too slow for me (I'm 50), but I DO like it when Rita tells you you're half-way done and it's time to turn around.

I liked that the CD takes you half way and then turns you around to go back home. The other CD I have is more for a walk around a track. I like that one better.

This is a great cd to start your walking program. As you walk to very good music you will hear interesting facts about walking and also helpful hints to make your walking experience better.

I do a lot of indoor walking for exercise, and this CD is a very good one to listen to while walking.

not fast enough for me.
