Customer Reviews

My 2 year old daughter LOVES this book! She actually asks to sleep with it some nights lol. It's the perfect length because it doesn't drone on forever and it's long enough to be a quality story. The pictures are very cute and on each page they have an african saying that they teach you.

Great book to parallel the show for a pre-reader.

my niece loved this!!

This book is nearly identical to the episode with the same name. This just summarizes the story, with language easy for a young child to follow. Additionally, for fun, each page offers definitions of the different words Bunga often says.

Cute story, follows the episode closely. Read it to my three year old once and now he "reads" it to me by looking at the pictures and yelling me the story. He's very excited to be "reading."

Not much to say about this book or tv series. I love it, my daughter loves it. Zuka Zama

Cute book, the kids loved the words that were in the language from the Lion Guard.

Recaps the episode. My son loves reading this book over and over again.
