Bonnie Lynn Demanche is an artist who specializes in pen and ink illustrations. She is the mother of two grown boys. She lives with her husband in New Hampshire, where she is an active member of the local artist community.

This is a cute set of postcards which deal mostly with romantic love. There are a few which may apply to other individuals but it is generally something you would color and give to your sweetheart. The back of each page is pre-set for use as a postcard. The card has a spot for a stamp and is equally divided for a written message and an address. The designs are detailed and a few have smaller areas to color which might require the use of ultra-fine pens/markers or really sharp pencils.

Crayons might be difficult to use unless you are able to sharpen them to a fairly fine point. The binding is a notepad style where it is easy to remove pages by carefully pulling them away. They will remove in whole without any loss of designs. The paper is a lightweight card stock rather than a heavy weight postcard stock. It is white and fairly smooth to the touch. Alcohol-based markers were the only coloring medium which bled through the page. Water-based markers, gel pens, and India ink pens did not bleed through or leave shadows on the back of the page. I used a blotter page of card stock when using my Sharpies, Bic Mark-its and Copics to keep seeping ink from ruining the design below. Colored Pencils worked okay with this paper. I got good pigment and layered colors easily. Blending was a little smeary with both oil and wax based pencils (probably due to the smooth paper.)

These cards really exceeded my expectations upon arrival. They are as described and pictured. The cards are a little thinner than standard postcards. Using only Laneco gel pens so far, I've had no bleed through or smearing. I like that some pages are not quite as detailed for faster and or "emergency" completion! They are a perfect size for stowing away in his shaving bag, briefcase, or pocket. They are a nice surprise for someone special. ">Read more

These are AWESOME! I find the larger coloring pictures to be tedious and they usually lose my attention halfway through resulting in lots of unfinished artwork. These postcards are perfect! Thick and detailed with cute sayings, they are fun to color and make lovely gifts! The artwork is pleasing to the eye and I have yet to find any small errors by the artist (ie, designs that underlap other designs and aren't "complete"). The completed product looks amazing framed and also makes for an awesome surprise if you mail them.

Nice, card thickness. My grandchildren loved them! I gave them the choice of coloring or if I should. They wanted me to do them. Only issue I have, is that I would have liked a bigger pack.

LOVE this little book of "Love Notes" Make some more. These are easy to put in one's purse and color when there is a spare minute or two.

I love these note cards, very practical! I would buy these again in a heartbeat!
