My Name Is Tzip, Nice To Meet You: Bilingual (English - Japanese)

Synopsis

My name is Tzip and as you can see, I'm a cat. My owner says I appeared one day like a gift on her doorstep and insisted on staying. She tells anyone willing to listen to her, that they can learn a lot from me on how to live a peaceful and relaxed social life. Do you want to know how? Let me tell you my story.

Customer Reviews

While I cannot read all of the Japanese in this book yet, it is challenging and fun for me to try. My children love when I read it to them in English, and enjoy listening to me try to sound out the Japanese as well. The book's message is wonderful, and presented in an adorable way. Definitely a good buy.

Whenever I am visiting the grandkids, we spend some time reading books from my kindle, so I try and get new ones whenever I can. We picked this one and my granddaughter was really happy it had Japanese on it. She knows a long sentence (which I have no idea where or when or what it means) so she was happy to see the Japanese writing on the pages. When we finished, she said "Grandma, that was really a nice story." I am sure it will become part of our regular reading list. It is just a sweet little story for sweet kids to hear.
