Opal (A Lux Novel Book 3)

Synopsis

Book Three of the bestselling Lux series No one is like Daemon Black. When he set out to prove his feelings for me, he wasn't fooling around. Doubting him isn't something I'll do again, and now that we've made it through the rough patches, well... There's a lot of spontaneous combustion going on. But even he can't protect his family from the danger of trying to free those they love. After everything, I'm no longer the same Katy. I'm different... And I'm not sure what that will mean in the end. When each step we take in discovering the truth puts us in the path of the secret organization responsible for torturing and testing hybrids, the more I realize there is no end to what I'm capable of. The death of someone close still lingers, help comes from the most unlikely source, and friends will become the deadliest of enemies, but we won't turn back. Even if the outcome will shatter our worlds forever. Together we're stronger...and they know it.

This book OMG this book! Everything happened and I mean everything. I had all the feels and in the end, this book has destroyed me. You have to read it! Stop what you are doing and read it. Even if you thought that the first two books were just okay this is the book that will make you love the series. Opal is everything that I could have wanted in the Lux series, this is the best book so far. We start off like a week after Onyx and everyone is still recovering from those horrific events. Dawson is back and of course he isn't the same guy we knew from Shadows (Lux #0.5) he has been through a lot of horrible stuff and the love of his life is missing so of course he is in a bad place, basically he is dealing with PTSD. I love the fact that Dawson is back in the story and the relationship between him and Katy is so sweet. He is having trouble and can't really go to the people from his life before he was taken but with Katy there is something there. I can see the start of a good friendship and I wish Jennifer could have developed it a little more. As for how everyone else is in the start of Opal, well Ash and Andrew have calmed a little but Dee has totally gone dark side. Things are broken for her and she starts to become a different person, Adam's death has really changed her and her relationships to the people around her. Katy is feeling guilty and Daemon is feeling Katy. I swear to you that I didn't like him in Obsidian, the first book, then I read a tiny bit of Oblivion (told from Daemon's POV) and I was like he might be okay. By the end of Onyx I was like "Ok I really am feeling me some Daemon" now after Opal, I want to marry him. That's right I have drunk the kool-aid, I have completely fallen for Daemon Black. Daemon has completely changed he is totally with Katy and their relationship is starting to grow and become something more. He shows his love and affection for her all the time in the little stuff he does and I find it totally adorable. However, he is still Daemon with his smugness, huge ego and cocky attitude. Daemon and Katy still get sassy with each other and I love it. Here is the low down, Blake is back and no one trusts him, I sure as hell don't. Will is still out there and Katy and Daemon have no idea if the mutation worked (please say it ain't so), people are missing, bodies are flying, things are getting even more dangerous and while some mysteries are answered others keep popping up. Now here is the real killer, Opal ended on a gut-wrenching cliffhanger that brought me to tears and I want some payback. I have to read Origin, there is no choice in the matter. I have to find out what happens next and best of all, this book is told from alternating POVs, get ready for Origin.

Opal is part 3 in the Lux Series by Jennifer L Armentrout. This is a continuation from book 2 and you need to have read both books 1 and 2 to be able to keep up with what's happening here. It starts off a little slower than the previous two books, but once things start to happen the storyline sure takes off with danger and deception at every turn, and keeps you hanging on for more. Daemon is his usual cocky cheeky self and Katy matches him with her feisty attitude, keeping him in line and together they make an amusing and fantastic fictional couple. Their relationship is continually growing and it feels sweet and realistic, even though one of them is an alien and the other a human/alien hybrid. Again the writing is excellent and it ends on one major cliffhanger that almost had me in tears. The characters reaction to this dangerous situation really pulls at your heartstrings and it has you grabbing that next book pretty fast to see what happens next. Overall, even after the slower start this is still one great read and I can't wait to see what happens next.

Holy cow!! That ending!!! I hate cliffhangers with a passion. Jennifer is an amazing author that has the ability to leave us hanging at the edge of our seats with our hearts broken. That's exactly how I felt at the end of Opal. But, let's get to the rest of the book. I was so happy that Katy and Daemon were finally together in this book!! We got to enjoy them as a couple. Daemon got more swoon-worthy in this book than he already was. He put Katy and her needs before his. He's always protecting her. He's a true alpha-male with a soft side. Sigh. Together Katy and Daemon are powerful, intoxicating, and addictive. I'm so sad we didn't get to see much of Dee in this book and when we did get to see her, she wasn't the same Dee as she was in Obsidian and Onyx. I just missed her. I get that she was heartbroken and upset over Adam, but I think she went a little overboard. Although who knows how I'd act if I lost someone close to me. And, it's all Blake's fault. If I ever get my hands on that boy....it won't be good. Opal isn't my favorite book in the series, but it's definitely one that you don't want to miss. I'm so glad that I already have the next book in this series waiting on me. I don't know if I could handle waiting to find out what happens next!

OMG! This is by far my fave of the series! SO MUCH HAPPENS! There's the angst, action, romance, drama, and it all pulled the feels from me! The characters have all grown and changed, and I enjoyed watching it happen. I swear my heart was going to burst for several scenes in this story. Daemon shows his softer, protective side, yet remains true to his cocky, sarcastic self. Kat grows in her confidence and I like that! Jenn is KILLING me though! I mean...whoa! I devoured this book in like 6 hours and am DYING to begin Origin, but I sorta need a few hours of sleep so I can work. But I'll start the next book immediately!
