Customer Reviews

Laurel Porter-Gaylord is an artist as well as an author.Ashley Wolff is the creator and illustrator of many popular picture books.

This beautiful picture bilingual picture book includes various animal mothers and their young. The illustrations and most of the text is different from "Quiero a mi papa porque". All the animals are labeled in English and Spanish and their associated behaviors are accurate, as verified by animal experts. I understand what one baby prefere does not mean all will; my son enjoyed the pictures from 10-13 months, his current age. And I am learning more Spanish!

My & my sons favorite book

Whether or not you speak Spanish, this is a fantastic book for your baby! Each page has a description and an image of animals tenderly caring for their offspring, just like we do Great book. Also has informational names of animals in English & Spanish.

Love this book as well as the papa version. Adorable and lots of fun pictures of animals and cute things that explain the relationships babies have with their mama (or papa) regardless of species. Great illustrations and love the bilingual. Read to my son often.

These are cute and have great colors, but such bad quality! In Most of them, the glue has come off almost immediately and the bows are difficult to glue back, due to the fabric. Would not recommend.

This is a sweet book for toddlers who are bilingual or Spanish speaking. It's a simply written book with the repetition toddlers like.

A beautiful board book, I love that the animal names (particularly the obscure ones, as well as the appropriate translation for the name of the baby animal depending on the species) are accurately stated in both English and Spanish.
