My 6th grade art students gave me dubious looks when they saw the level of this book, but I told them I wanted a quick story to read about the cave paintings so we could get to actually making our own paintings. They actually really enjoyed the story, and it gave them an excellent background to why the paintings are there, and why they are special.

Bought this for my step son who is 9, he is behind on his reading level so this is perfect for him. He doesn't get bored since there aren't huge paragraphs, nice pictures, and some new words for him to learn.

My granddaughter read that book to me. She also gave an oral report on the book in her first grade class. Her classmates enjoyed her presentation-so did her teacher!

A good child history and a great effort to preserve the cave and the ancient treasures.

My grandson love this series

My granddaughter really liked the book

all good

My son had no trouble reading it. he was able to give me great detail description of the story, great for learning readers
