I've been a Hanson Fan since 1997 and I had no opportunity to buy this book anywhere living in another country far from the US. Reading it I don't find anything new, but the fact I've got it makes me satisfied and happy, even if I'm already as old as Hanson brothers :)I think this book might be an interesting one for the new fans. And "must have" for some others)))

Well, I just got the book for Xmas, and all i can say is that the guys (Hanson) were not right in telling that the unofficial bios were spreading rumors or anything. I felt a real interest in the author's way to write and I'm sure her work would have been even better if she had been able to meet the guys !

Well, Hanson fans all over the world, this bio is something you should get, even if now, the official bio practically says the same (at least for the beginning of their life and career) But this little book will give you a whole review of ALL the songs in the Middle Of Nowhere album, and that's not to be left apart...See you in another review !!Sarah.

The book "hanson-MMMBop to the Top" is very good. It tells you about their life BEFORE they made Middle Of Nowhere. It focuses on all of their songs on the c.d. There are some very good pictures of the guys.If you're REALLY into Hanson and like to get almost everything they are mentioned in then this book is for you. I have both copies of their unauthorized biographies, and this one is more real than the other so if you don't mind the book noticing Zac as "The ham on Wry one" than buy the book for $3 or so. It even offers addresses on how to reach the brothers and it will give you more information than you could imagine!

Seeing as this is unauthorized, there are a few informational errors, such as Hanson Day in Oklahoma is May 6, not May 25. Since Hanson had nothing to do with the writing of this book, it is fairly accurate. There were only minor mistakes in details, but otherwise this is an accurate account of the lives of Isaac, Taylor, and Zac. The color picture insert didn't hurt either. In fact, there are some peculiar facts about them that seem rather personal. I wonder how the author got some of these details. However, many Hanson mysteries were solved, and this book is a must-read for Hanson fans. On a scale it gets a 9 due to the detail errors.

Three thumbs up (we know that's not possible-I mean, we're not stupid or anything...but you have to admit 1)It sounds better and 2)there are three Hanson's in the band,) for HANSON:MMMBOP TO THE TOP: AN UNAUTHORIZED BIOGRAPHY. Despite the weird and corny chapter titles (i.e. "Zac: The Ham on Wry One") it is a very informing and entertaining book on the three brothers from Tulsa. Although it has lots of info on them the author never got a one-on-one interview with the guys. We rated it an 8 because no book is perfect, especially one not written by Hanson themselves. =)

(We're kidding! We're kidding! REALLY!!)

I think this is a great book! It has a lot about Hanson in it. Even though I already know a lot about them, but I found out a lot of things I never knew! It had some cool pictures, well, actually a lot of cool pictures!!!! I thought it was a really easy book to read, but I think that it's because I know so much about them already, and also I think that it is below my reading level because I am almost 15 in 9th grade and I read on a 11th or 12th grade reading level. But, I LOVE HANSON!!! This is a great book for Hanson Fans!!!

I think the reason Hanson is so big is because everyone wishes them success because they are young and making it big. All these kids wish that they can be noticed for something good and then Hanson comes along and sings good, wholesome music. This book is really good because it tells about how their family is. I do wish it was a little more difficult to read because I am almost in 9th grade and I finished it rather quickly.

Definatly a 10!! I already knew everything about Hanson, or so I thought. When I finished reading this book (which was in about an hour and a half  I read fast!) I was like, "Wowzers, I really didn't know everything about the 3 hotties! Even my mom loved it!! Get it at local stores NOW! And look for the new CD and official book in stores soon! Oh and even a video tape. I'm 15 by the way!
