Jack and Annie set off to find an original copy of an ancient Chinese myth. Armed only with their magic library cards, they must take on a book-burning emperor. But with the help of a scholar and a silk weaver, they triumph again.

The authors have an astonishing track record for inspiring readers. Highly acclaimed by parents, teachers, and especially kids, these books have an astonishing track record for inspiring readers. Highly acclaimed by parents, teachers, and especially kids, these books have an astonishing track record for inspiring readers. With their strong characters, imaginative plots, and just the right dose of history or science, it's no wonder kids love Magic Tree House books.

These books are a cry of relief from the five minute books we usually read with our son and they have already taught him so much about science, nature, and particularly history. Jack and Annie, the lead characters in the series, travel through time and meet with prominent historical figures such as Equipment Queens, take a trip to the moon, spend a day with Abraham Lincoln, land in camp with General George Washington as he is ready to cross the Delaware, and even convince a young Mozart to continue his pursuit in music. They are well written books that peak interest in subjects young kids may not yet have access to and have accompanying research guides that give detailed back stories and historical guides to the subjects covered in the novels. Although the intended audience of the series seem to be for children around 8 - 10, our five year old becomes engulfed in the stories every single evening, always looking forward to what adventure Jack and Annie are heading for next. also tend to have a wider availability of the series than book stores like Barnes and Nobel at prices up to half the cost of the same.

I bought a few of these as a gift for my nephew, who LOVES the Magic Tree House books. This aunt loves anything that gets the kids excited about reading! Great price, fast shipping, and awesome stories to encourage kids to read!

We love these books! We read a chapter or two every single night! They're fun for our daughter and educational for parents!

My seven year old son loves EVERY SINGLE one of the Magic Tree House books. He is determined to own/read all of them.

I wish all the books were this price. My class loves this series!

It was such a good book it had a lot of things I did not know you should buy this book they have plenty more Annie has a way with animal's. and Jack love to say let's look in the book they have a tree house there is a lot of books in there they point at a picture and say I wish we could go there and go there it is a good book it is also very funny

I am max and I am 7 years old . I like this book. I want to China this summer

I'm a big fan of ancient history!!!! I love it love it love it!!At school we have this read your heart out program where we have to read 4 books a month and take accelerated reader tests on them and every book of yours I read, I take a test on. I love love love your books! I hope you never stop writing them!!!! - Dulaney H.
