Important Daily Life Lessons For Living In The Philippines (Expat Answerman: Philippines Book 11)

Synopsis

When you move to a new country in a different part of the world, it stands to reason that your daily life will change! Things will not be the same as what you are experiencing now. Most likely, right now, you get up in the morning, eat breakfast, drink a cup of coffee and you head to the office or the factory for a day of work. Every week or two you get your paycheck, pay the bills and keep going with your life. Well, life will be different when you live in a new country like the Philippines. You will experience a new culture, new ways of looking at things, etc. Get yourself ready and find out what some of the things are that you will experience when you move to the Philippines. It's better to find these things out as much as possible before you make the move than to make such a drastic move only to find out that you don't like what you are experiencing after the fact! In this book, we will look at:- Daily Life- When you live in the Tropics- Can you handle the noise?- A not so pleasant morning- How to know you've adjusted- I know better than they do- Frustration setting in- Washing clothes- Public Bathrooms in the Philippines- Gonna Have a Haircut Today- What to wear (from Feyma)- What should I wear in the Philippines (from Bob)- One of my last steps in acculturation- On demand hot water- Be careful who you hang out with Get all the information you need and daily life lessons that you need to learn before you make your final decision about moving to the Philippines!
