In the late 1970s we ventured across the country from northern California to western Pennsylvania and back through Washington and Oregon in Steven's boxy old 1965 Chevy van. Â Those were the days, my friends. That trip had a lasting effect and over time we realized we were destined to be full time RVers. In 1995 we sold our house and a Recreational Vehicle became our home. An RV has been our home every since.

Customer Reviews

I got this book because we are totally new to the RV world and need all the help we can get. As of this review we have a brand new travel trailer sitting in our driveway but have yet to take it anywhere. We have spent the past month getting ready for our first trip which is coming up soon. That means lots of shopping and finding as many good resources as we can to help us do things right. This book has been a Godsend and after reading it I feel much more confident about what we're doing and it will be nice to know we have a good reference we can refer to along the way. I loved the Quick Tips that were interspersed throughout the book and I book marked many of them. I also liked the handy RV website hyperlinks in my Kindle edition. I plan to join them all for more advice as we go. I highly recommend this book whether you're a brand new RVer or even if you're a seasoned veteran. I'm sure you'll find lots of helpful information for whatever issues you face. It seems to all be covered here.

Great tips in this book. Very interesting and a quick read. A very helpful tool for any RV er

Good read. Easy to select those areas of interest and go directly to those areas. Some of the tips are common sense but in this day, that is not as common as it used to be. Well worth reading.

Weekend camper or on the road full time, you're sure to find some useful tips you didn't know or possibly forgot. Good, up to date tips.

As a long time RVer, I found many useful tips. We are never too old to learn new things. I have already put new things into play in our RV life. A smart person learns from other's experiences. Not only can you learn to do things better, you can learn to save some money which is always helpful. You can also sign up for their email tip of the day and their email discussion group.

This is a great compilation of tips, ideas and suggestions for any RV-er. Some are indeed common sense - but many are not and offer things you would not know or be aware of - unless you are a more experienced RV-er already... A great read!

You can get all of his tips by reading some blogs and searching internet rv sites. Save your money, I wish I did.

Great tips.
